

HOLMES DYER

Helen Dyer

Managing Director

FRPIA, MAICD

Qualifications

Masters of Environmental Law (University of Adelaide)

Graduate Diploma in Regional and Urban Planning (University of South Australia)

Bachelor of Arts (Planning) (University of South Australia)

Associate Diploma in Cartography (Awarded Cartography Prize) (South Australian Institute of Planning)

Registered Planner

Past Affiliations

Past Member of the Premier's Capital City Forum

Past Member of Minister Hill's Southern Suburbs Coordinating Committee

Past Chair of the Metropolitan Local Government Chief Executive Officers Group

Past President of the Planning Institute of Australia (SA Division)

Past Judge of the Urban Development Institute of Australia (SA Division) Awards for Excellence

Past Chair University of Adelaide Masters in Planning Courses Advisory Panel

Past Member of the Urban Development Institute of Australia's (SA Division) Planning Committee

Expertise

- Strategy
- Public Sector Governance
- Leadership and working with Boards and Elected Officials
- Highly developed political awareness and astute decision making ability
- Aptitude to think logically, analytically, strategically and laterally enabling creative thinking and decision making
- Consultation and negotiation
- Town Planning

Experience

Helen is an experienced hands on Chief Executive Officer with comprehensive experience in the public and private sectors both in South Australia and interstate.

With a background in Town Planning and Environmental Law, Helen started her career as a planner in Darwin. She moved back to South Australia where she worked in the planning department and the South Australian Tourism Commission.

Helen concluded her time in the State Government as a Ministerial Adviser to the Planning Minister. Post Advising the Minister, Helen spent 12 years in Local Government including working as the CEO at the Town of Walkerville and The City of Mitcham.

Since 2010, Helen has been a highly accomplished consultant, with an extensive background in Governance, Management and Planning.

Helen is outcome focussed and effectively manages and drives projects to successful completion.

Affiliations

- Fellow of the Planning Institute of Australia
- Member of the Urban Development Institute of Australia
- Co-Chair UDIA (SA) & LGA Committee
- Deputy Presiding Member of the Development Assessment Commission
- Presiding Member of the Streaky Bay Development Assessment Panel